SOSH ARCHITECTS ANNOUNCES NEW HIRES: KYLE CARRIER, SLOANE SPURLOCK, AND MICHAEL KUHLMAN

(Atlantic City, NJ) – SOSH Architects, a nationally recognized architecture, interior design and master planning firm, is pleased to announce the additions of Kyle Carrier, Sloane Spurlock and Michael Kuhlman to its staff.

“We are very excited to welcome Kyle, Sloane and Michael to our team,” said Bill Salerno, SOSH Principal. “Each of them brings a unique background and skill set that will contribute to the growth and success of our firm.”

Kyle Carrier has joined SOSH as Project Coordinator in the firm’s Atlantic City office. Having studied at Stockton University and Ocean County Community College, Kyle, a Tuckerton, NJ resident, began his career in architecture as a drafting consultant with the firm. His background in creative arts, combined with an eagerness to learn more about the architecture field, Kyle quickly earned a permanent position on staff.

Sloane Spurlock is the newest addition to SOSH’s Philadelphia office, joining the team as Administrative Assistant. In this role, Sloane will support the Philadelphia staff in day-to-day office functions, as well as assist in marketing and business development efforts. Sloane’s background is in promotions and advertising sales and is a graduate of Drexel University where she studied Television and Media Studies. She is a Northfield, NJ native, and currently resides in Philadelphia.

Michael Kuhlman has joined SOSH as Project Coordinator and will work in the firm’s Atlantic City office. Michael, a New Gretna, NJ resident, is a graduate of the New Jersey Institute of Technology (NJIT) and has prior architectural experience working at various firms in Northern and Central New Jersey. Michael adds his technical skills in graphic modeling, architectural project and project management to the team’s multi-faceted capabilities.
