(Atlantic City, NJ) – SOSH Architects, an award-winning architecture, interior design and master planning firm, is pleased to announce the addition of Alaa Alzaitoun to its staff.

Alaa joins SOSH's architectural staff as Project Coordinator and will contribute his design and coordination talents to the firm's commercial projects.

Alaa previously worked at architecture firms in Philadelphia and Texas. His past experience as an architectural designer and associate project manager, along with his knowledge of architectural programs including AutoCAD, Revit, Photoshop and SketchUp will be an asset in assisting in the day-to-day development of designs and documents for client projects.

"We are pleased to welcome Alaa to our staff," said John DeRichie, SOSH Principal. "His skills and fresh perspective combined with his previous design experience will undoubtedly be a positive contribution to the services we provide our clients."

Alaa, a resident of Mays Landing, NJ was born and raised in Syria. He moved to the US with his family and completed his education in Texas. He earned a Bachelor of Science in Architecture and Master of Architecture from The University of Texas at Arlington and is currently on a path to architectural licensure.
